Dear Salma,

I'm so happy to hear that you and your family are visiting Bournemouth in England soon. All the hotels there are very modern and comfortable. You can find information about them at the tourist information centre. Bournemouth is next to the sea and it has a beautiful beach. When it's windy, you should definitely go windsurfing.

You should take a coat and jumper when you go to Bournemouth. It can be cold and rainy even in the summer! When it's sunny, you shouldn't go to the beach in the afternoon. Everyone goes then! It is best to go to the beach early in the morning, when it is quieter. You should try swimming too, but you should wear a wet suit. The sea is always cold.

Have a great time!

Catherine

Until the 1960s, the Aral Sea was one of the biggest seas in the world. Today, you can walk across a lot of it. It looks like a desert. There are boats now lying on sand that was once the bottom of the sea. The problem started in the 1960s when people started to irrigate the land around the Aral Sea to grow cotton. Every year after that, there was less and less water and the sea became smaller. Today, there is little water left in parts of the sea. In the east part, there is no water at all.
In the 1980s, the fishing village of Muynoq was next to the sea. Today, the nearest sea water is about 70 kilometres away. Few people in the village have the same jobs now. They have to find different jobs.
